07 January

I suspect that many of you have decided that dry January is no longer the great idea it seemed a few days ago and if that is the case then here is an offer for you. A discounted selection of delicious wines that will add a little bit of luxury at the end of a hard day of home schooling or just as a way to celebrate that you made it through Tuesday!

The Touraine Sauvignon is super value for what is basically a 'mini-Sancerre' and the Chablis is a classic example that is drinking beautifully at the moment. On the reds I returned to the La Chappelle over Christmas and it is a beautifully elegant wine that punches well above its price point. The Julienas is also drinking really well at the moment; this a rich and powerful Gamay that is perfect for drinking on a wintery evening.

Delivery as usual is free on all orders of 12 bottles or more. As ever, for any questions or queries we are always at the end of the phone or available by email.

◆ Sauvignon Touraine 2018, Paul Buisse	6	£51	£50
Passionfruit, cooked apple, a touch of herby character and lovely stony mineral character which encapsulates the Loire and could even make this confusable with Sancerre. jancisrobinson.com
◆ Ficiligno 2019, Baglio di Pianetto	6	£80	£71
Delicious blend of Insolia and Viognier. Perfumed on the nose with lemon and citrus notes. Fresh and crisp in the mouth with sherbet zestyness, lots of energy. Delicious on it own or with slightly spicy sea food. LV
◆ Gruner Veltliner Axpoin 2018, Gritsch	6	£94	£88
Rich and exotic Gruner Veltliner form one of the very best producers in Austria. Concentrated white peach fruit with a touch of spiciness allbalanced by a delicious fresh acidity. LV
◆ Chablis 2018, Domaine des Malandes	12	£159	£144
The 2018 Chablis Village has a reserved, quite austere wet limestone nose. The palate is nicely balanced with a slightly honeyed textured. robertparker.com
◆ St Aubin 1er Cru En Frionnes 2016, Hubert Lamy	6	£250	£230
Pale yellow. Brisk aromas of lemon and ginger. Then surprisingly supple in the mouth, offering captivating flavors of grilled hazelnut, spices and white pepper. The long, rising finish features strong salty minerality along with a faint hard edge that will require a long élevage. robertparker.com

◊	Red	📦	£	€
◆	Eguia Bodega Muriel Rioja 2018 Lovely juicy red and black fruit with a touch of spice, while not hugely complex this is beautifully made and delicious. LV	6	£55	€50
◆	Nero d'Avola 2018, Baglio di Pianetto Plush and rich red wine that showcases the soft and very approachable side of this important Sicilian grape. The wine opens to thick layers of cherry and blackberry with some distant spice and toasted almond at the rear. It shows simple lines with a lot of richness and darkness packed within. LV	6	£62	€54
◆	Julienas Vayolette 2015, David Beaupere It has a very pure and quite seductive bouquet, with a mixture of red and black fruit, blackberry, licorice and a mote of chalk dust. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, well judged acidity, gently gripping the mouth and leaving a lovely blood orange note on the long finish. It has more substance, matière than the nascent 2016, and it should drink well for a number of years. Neal Martin	6	£122	€90
◆	La Chapelle d'Albas 2013, St Jacques d'Albas Discreet but definite pepper spice on the nose. Lovely purity and perfume on the palate, and a gracefulness that is too often lacking from Languedoc reds. Black cherry, finely ground tannins, moderate persistence. jancisrobinson.com	6	£120	€108
◆	Auxey Duresses 1er Cru Climat du Val 2017, Domaine Lafouge The 2017 Auxey-Duresses 1er Cru Climat du Val unwinds in the glass with aromas of smoky berry fruit, plums, loamy soil and spice. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, with a satiny attack, good depth at the core and enough fleshy fruit to largely conceal its chassis of fine but chalky structuring tannin. This will merit a few years' bottle age. robertparker.com	6	£144	€136
